

Day 1 | Session 2:

Introduction to international advocacy

Tuesday, 29 June, 2021 [6:30 - 8:00 UTC]

Objective: This session will introduce discussions for understanding policy advocacy. The aim is to enable participants to understand what international advocacy is and what its limits are. By the end of the session participants will have a better understanding of why policy advocacy is undertaken, where it has succeeded and when it has failed.

Session plan:

- Introduction to international advocacy - what is it?
- Who is it targeted toward?
- The relationship between national and international advocacy
- What have been some examples of successes? (case studies)
- How has the digital era impacted international advocacy spaces?
- What are the challenges one can expect to encounter when engaging in advocacy, especially during the Covid-19 pandemic?
- What are some limitations of international advocacy?
- Case studies of when it has not worked and why
