Instructions

- Choose one from the four options provided
- While page limits have been suggested, they are not mandatory. We advise you to try and stick to the page limit to help yourself and the team with managing the task.
- During the workshop, you would be introduced to the other participants who have chosen the same practicum exercise as you. You can self organise on a medium that the group is comfortable with to seek support and discuss the exercise.
- All submissions should be emailed to challenge@apc.org with the subject line Internet Rules Practicum: (Option) (Name).
- Please send us your submissions no later than 4 December 2020.
