

Session 4: Under lock and key: Privacy, surveillance and data protection

Jam Jacob

The slide features a portrait of Jam Jacob on the left. To the right is a title box containing his name and affiliation. Below the title box is a bio section with two columns of text. The slide is decorated with an orange grid pattern and several icons, including a pink umbrella icon in the top left, a magnifying glass icon in the top right, and a copyright symbol in the bottom left. Logos for APC, a group of three people, and SAFEnet are in the top right corner.

JAM JACOB (FOUNDATION FOR MEDIA ALTERNATIVES)

Jam Jacob is the Policy and Legal Advisor of the Foundation for Media Alternatives and the Data Protection Officer of the Ateneo de Manila University. A lawyer by profession and a certified privacy professional (CIPPe, CIPM), Jam has spent more than a decade working on data protection, and is involved in the development of many of the Philippines' data protection policies. He holds degrees in Sociology and Law from the University of the Philippines and a postgraduate degree in Human Rights Law from the University of Auckland.
