

Session 4: Under lock and key: Privacy, surveillance and data protection

Jam Jacob

The slide is titled "JAM JACOB (FOUNDATION FOR MEDIA ALTERNATIVES)" in a pink rounded rectangle. Below the title, there is a portrait of Jam Jacob on the left and a two-column bio on the right. The bio describes his role as Policy and Legal Advisor, his degrees from Manila University and the University of Auckland, and his experience as a privacy professional. The slide is decorated with a grid pattern and various icons like a magnifying glass, a play button, and a copyright symbol. Logos for APC, a group of three people, and SAFEnet are in the top right corner. A pink icon is in the top left. A copyright symbol is in the bottom left. A small text box at the bottom left of the portrait reads "PRIVACY, STATE SURVEILLANCE AND DATA PROTECTION".

JAM JACOB (FOUNDATION FOR MEDIA ALTERNATIVES)

Jam Jacob is the Policy and Legal Advisor of the Foundation for Media Alternatives and the Data Protection Officer of the Ateneo de Manila University. A lawyer by profession and a certified privacy professional (CIPPe, CIPM), Jam has spent more than a decade working on data protection, and is involved in the development of many of the Philippines' data protection policies. He holds degrees in Sociology and Law from the University of the Philippines and a postgraduate degree in Human Rights Law from the University of Auckland.
